Interestingly, by following this review people can rest assure that The Arab-Israeli Conflict is a great book as described.

About This Book:

Fraser (provost; U. of Ulster) examines the historical background of this enduring conflict; clearly describing the events that have led to a present marked by suicide bombings and reprisals. He begins by describing the legacies of the First and Second World Wars; the Holocaust; and American Jewish support for the creation of the state of Israel; the partition of Palestine; and the first Arab-Israeli war. He then describes how Suez and Egypt figure in the conflict; and how the region passed from...
